This is my command: Love each other. John 15:17

I enjoyed meeting with everyone during parent teacher conferences. It is very clear why the classes are filled with such great kids. They have loving and caring parents. Please remember you are your children's first and most important teacher!

VALENTINE CARDS

If your child would like to exchange valentines with the class, please print the child's name so that the children themselves will be able to be the "mail carrier" and "deliver" their own cards. Cards may be brought to school any time before party day to avoid the Valentine Party Day mail rush! The children are becoming more and more interested in identifying each other's names.

to with the

For example: Billy

Our Bible story for the month of February will be Matthew 19:13-15. This is where Jesus welcomes the little children. All month we will talk about how we are all called to Love God and Love Others.

The Tooth Fairy will visit our class February 16th and 17th
